

DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY (PhD)

DWU Postgraduate & Research Centre

The Doctor of Philosophy (PhD) program is completed by a research thesis of about 80,000 words on an approved topic under the guidance of a supervisory team. The candidate demonstrates the capacity to carry out independent research.

The PhD program is offered in both full-time and part-time study modes. Students are required to maintain regular communication with their supervisory team, to have their own personal laptop and reliable internet connectivity.

The PhD program culminates with external examination of the thesis, to be passed, for the candidate to be eligible for the award. The normal period of candidature is four years full-time or six years part-time.

Purpose

The PhD Program aims to produce scholars and scientists able to conduct research autonomously and to be able to contribute to the National Research Agenda. The PhD award by thesis alone is recommended for those in (or aiming to enter) an academic position or a professional research post.
